

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF NORFOLK

Fourth Judicial Circuit

Ray Gregory

Plaintiff

v. Timothy W. Watson, d/b/a Masonry Restoration, Inc. and

File Number: CL11-5742

Masonry Restoration, Inc

Defendants

ORDER

Today's trial was to determine damages, the defendants having been found in default by order entered April 25, 2012. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Thomas S. Carnes, Esq., his attorney. The defendant Timothy W. Watson appeared in person and proceeded pro se. Masonry Restoration, Inc. did not appear. Having heard evidence in favor of the plaintiff, the Court grants judgment to the plaintiff against both defendants, jointly and severally, in the sum of $148,688.60 with interest thereon from July 1, 2011, until paid, plus costs on his behalf expended.

Let execution upon this judgment issue forthwith.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 25 day of July, 2012.

[Signature]
Judge

I ask for this:

Scott Carnes
counsel for Plaintiff

Seen and objected to:

[Signature]